

Talks Tent and Shows Schedule

Talks Tent: Wildlife Willoughby Citizens

9.30 to 10.30

- Steph Clarke: National Parks Association and citizen sciences: findings of the Water Dragon project and other programs you can take part in.
- Dr Koa Webster Macquarie University lecturer presents the 'Scoop a poop' citizen science project detecting antibiotic resistance in the natural environment.
- Lisa Wynn, Macquarie University lecturer and Wildlife Carer: Wildlife in the suburbs. The surprising array of urban wildlife that come into care, and insights.

Wildlife Shows

9.30 to 10.00 Australian Wildlife Show with Lee Webley

10.00 to 10.30 Marine Creatures with Rangers on the Run

Event Opening

10.40 to 10.45 Deputy Mayor Judith Rutherford

Wildlife Show

10.45 to 11.25 Birds in Free Flight with Feathered Friends

Talks Tent: Freshwater Wildlife

11.30 to 12.00

- Adam Woods from the Australian Museums Frog ID project. Hear about what the current Frog ID data is telling us in Sydney and the importance of this project.
- Dr Lizzy Lowe is an urban ecologist studying backyard insects and spiders. Hear about 'good bugs' and aquatic species that help control garden pests and attract a diversity of native wildlife.

Talks Tent: Water, Wildlife Gardens

12.00 to 1.00

- Geraldine Dalby-Ball Director at Kingfisher Urban Ecology and Wetlands: show casing environmental construction and regeneration of wetland environments and how you can apply this principal to the home garden
- Reid Butler: Building a Water Garden that provides clean water for the environment. Principals and how to.
- Peter Clarke, Creator of Ku-ring-gai's award winning Wild Things project: Pools to Ponds. Converting a pool to wildlife haven in your backyard (without a mozzie bite)

Wildlife Shows

12.50 to 1.20 Marine Creatures with Rangers on the Run

1.20 to 1.50 Australian Wildlife Show with Lee Webley

2.00 to 2.40 Birds in Free Flight with Feathered Friends

Talks Tent: Harbour Ocean Plastic

1.00 to 2.00

- Jools Farrell, vice president of OCCRA. Rescuing marine wildlife of Sydney. The creatures that need rescuing and why and the help they need from us.
- Madeleine Bell, communications manager for TAKE3. Plastic and marine life and the positive impact of individual actions.
- Scott Wilson: Macquarie University, senior lecturer in Environmental Science will be talking about micro plastics on our shores and AUSMAP.

For more details and up to date information: www.willoughby.nsw.gov.au/faunafair.